

Award Winners 2010

Herbert Goredema (Foundation Degree Award Winner): I think learning for me, it's basically empowerment really.

Sofia Begum (West Midlands Outstanding Learner of the Year): It's opened up my mind.

It's revitalised me.

Barbara Hall (Family Learners of the Year Award Winner): It's just made a whole world of difference.

It brings you out of yourself and then you build up your confidence.

Gill Pinnock (ESF Learning Works Award Winner): The more learning I did the more confident I was becoming.

Robert Wells (London Outstanding Learner of the Year.): Yeah I'm much more confident at doing the things I want to do.

Andrew Phillips (South East Outstanding Learner of the Year): I've got more confidence. Instead of asking people to help me do it, I think I can do it myself.

Alesia Parshutsina (East of England Outstanding Learner of the Year): My life now is much better. I understand what things mean. I understand the world.

And he helps me with everything I do.

It makes me feel happy that I can do it here.

Bit more confident in me, going out and seeing something I can have a go at reading it.

Matthew Davis (ESF Outstanding Learner of the Year): I've done an NVQ in business administration.

Jane Smith (Learning Works Award Winner): Yes, I have many certificates, which is great.

Julie Davies (North West Outstanding Learner of the Year): And I came out with a First Class Honours Degree which I'm very proud of.

Jim Kelly (National Learner of the Year.): Oh, it's had a great effect on my life.

Terry Sandford (NOCN Outstanding Achievement Award Winner.): Learning really just never stops.

Mark Beaton (Learning Works Award Winner): I'm addicted to learning now. It's a brilliant feeling.
